The Red course has had a “minor” tweak. Red 1 has been moved to nearer the containers, and there is a new Red 16. This is because people were not following the arrows and walking across the shooting area when returning from Red 16 to the containers

We are testing new types of target materials over the next couple of months, so expect to see some different types of targets appearing on the courses.

The combination locks have been changed on the green shed and loo. You should be able to work out the new number.

After 10 days of diversions whilst the Yapton Level Crossing was updated this is the standard of workmanship we got.
